Heavy Loss by the breaking up of the Ice at Cincinnati.

The Cincinnati Columbian estimates the damage done to the shipping by the recent breaking up of ice in the river, at upwards of $200,000.

The following are among the boats wrecked: The Grapeshot, valued at $17,000, and loaded with wheat, cotton and lard—insured; the Flag, valued at $3,000—insured for $6,000.—She had on 200 tons of merchandize for St. Louis. The Yorktown, valued at $10,000—insured for $5,000—had on 9,000 bushels wheat, 86 tons pig iron, 50 tierces lard and 100 bbls. pea nuts, for Pittsburg; the Medora, valued at $5,000—uninsured—no cargo; the Albertine, valued at $15,000—insured for $6,000—cargo light; the Bridge City, valued at $10,000—no insurance—had on about 100 tons of groceries and pig iron; the Salem, valued at $16,000—not insured. Several barges were destroyed.

The Hope Coal Company, of Pittsburgh, had several coal boats, below Western Row, completely broken up. Above a dozen coal boats were wrecked or carried off.

Below Mill Creek, the Wisconsin was seriously damaged. Every line of the Forest Queen was broken. As the last line gave way, the ice gorged and the boat was saved, but is lying in a precarious position.

Special Correspondence of the Democrat.

MADISON, February 29, 1856.

The Supreme Court met, yesterday afternoon, to listen to the arguments on the demurrer by the counsel for Bashford. Delay after delay had been sought, as all know, by Barstow's counsel, and every effort made, by them, to obstruct the course of Justice; but all hoped that their last plea for further postponement, had been made, and that the case would now proceed. Alas, vain hope!

At the opening of the Court, Mr. Orton pitifully announced that he was "alone, alone—all, all alone"—Mr. Carpenter being necessarily detained (a convenient phrase) at Janesville, and Mr. Arnold being indisposed (to attend the cause, I presume, than anything else). He therefore asked a little further delay, as he felt incompetent to combat with the judicial, or rather legal array of opposition.

Mr. Ryan very quietly, but pertinently, inquired of Mr. Orton whether he had a certificate of weakness. The question struck me as being entirely superfluous, for such a certificate was apparent in Mr. Orton's every feature.

Mr. Orton informed the Court that it was customary to grant delays for counsel in case of sickness, and thought it hardly fair that he should be obliged to suffer from an interposition of Divine Providence. It never occurred to me that Divine Providence had much to do with lawyers, any-way.

Mr. Ryan was sternly opposed to any further delay. The cause had already been hindered and checked under every conceivable plea—The question that was to be argued was a very simple one, and could be handled by Mr. Orton as well as anybody else. Then, too, ample time had been afforded Mr. Orton to consult with his co-counsel. One postponement of the cause had already been granted the counsel for the Respondent on account of sickness, and he did not think it right that there should be any more delays granted, and nothing but the order of the Court would induce him to consent to the request of Mr. Orton.

Judge Howe seconded Mr. Ryan's opinion.—He had already been detained here some three weeks, and yet the case had scarcely progressed a step. The Information had been filed on January 15th, and the plea of Jurisdiction had not yet been decided. He did not feel like suffering for others, nor to stay here merely to amuse the counsel for Mr. Barstow. He had treated them fairly, and desired only an equal show of fairness at their hands.

Mr. Orton thought it ungenerous to insinuate that the Respondent's counsel had wittingly delayed the cause. Sickness had been generally considered a sufficient reason for delay, in any suit. Three months, Mr. Orton said, would be granted by such jurists as Choate and Everett, in Massachusetts, for the consideration of such a cause as this now pending. He thought a further delay would be just and right.

Mr. Knowlton said that there was no rule for delaying a cause on a preliminary question like this, when one of the counsel were present.—He thought the question a very simple one, and was confident that Mr. Orton could argue it as well as anybody else.

Chief Justice Whiton stated that the indulgence of the Court had been well tested, and that Mr. Arnold's sickness could not be allowed to detain the Court any length of time.—The Court consequently gave counsel for Respondent one day more, fixing the time when the case must be argued, at 2 o'clock this (Friday) afternoon.

Justice Smith added that this time would be amply sufficient to secure the presence of Mr. Carpenter, who is, at present, at Janesville, after which the Court adjourned.

This brings things to a focus. Barstow's counsel have received their last favor, and must, perforce, "gird on their harness." Bashford's counsel are in fine spirits, and seem confident of the eventual success of their client. GOD grant it may be so. The people throughout the State, are looking with hope and anxiety upon the progress of the case. They are waiting to see whether the Court will defend their rights, and oust an officer from the high seat he has usurped in defiance of Justice and Right. We shall see.

I am watching Mr. Carpenter's course, in connection with the Bashford vs. Barstow case, with some interest, and I wait to see whether or no he purposes arguing in favor of the certificate being a finality. My reason for this peculiar interest in Mr. C., is, simply, that I understand he has a suit before the Supreme Court of a somewhat similar character. It seems that he is contesting the office of District Attorney, in Rock County, and proposed holding that the certificate of election was not and is not a finality. I know, a lawyer can do most anything, but that Mr. C. will pursue such an inconsistent course as to advocate, with one breath one thing, and with another breath something entirely at variance, I cannot believe. I think, Mr. Carpenter's business will be apt to detain him at Janesville, until the question of the "finality of the certificate" is decided by the Court.

Some time was occupied, this morning, in a discussion upon the preamble and resolutions relating to Kansas matters, which passed the Senate yesterday. Judge Rose and Mr. Cobb spoke at some length upon the matter, both gentlemen being partly in favor, and partly against the preamble.

Mr. Clement suggested to reconsider the matters, so as to give Senators an opportunity of making such changes in their votes as they might think best.

Mr. Rose explained his position. He thought the resolutions too strong against the President of the United States.

Mr. Smith said that, as it had been intimated that he had dodged the issue yesterday, he would like to record his vote at the present time.

Objection was made, and Mr. Hadley hoped some Senator, who had voted in the affirmative on the passage of the preamble and resolutions, would now move a reconsideration, that all might have an opportunity of defining their positions.

Mr. Rose moved to reconsider, which was carried by the following vote:

AYES—Adams, Clement, Cobb, Sholes, Sutherland—Republicans; Dunn, Gernon, Gibson, Gill, Hadley, Kelsey, O'Neil, Rose, Smith, Weil—Democrats—13.

NOES—Dexter, Giles, Harvey, Mills, Taylor, Washington—Republicans; Barnes, Fitzgerald—Democrats—8,

Mr. Barber (Rep.) not voting.

Mr. Sholes moved to lay the preamble and resolutions over, and make them the special order for next Wednesday.

Mr. Sutherland moved to amend by making them the special order of this afternoon and evening.

Mr. Hadley opposed the amendment, and wished the matter postponed till sometime next week.

The amendment was advocated by Messrs. Taylor, Smith and others, and was finally carried.

Mr. Kelsey made a Minority Report from Committee to whom was referred that portion of the Governor's Message relating to the temperance question, in which strong grounds were taken against the legality and practicability of a Maine Law.

Mr. Harvey offered a resolution that the report be received, laid upon the table, and 1,000 copies copies printed in English and 1,000 copies in German—the latter by B. Domschke, of Milwaukee.

Mr. Smith offered, as an amendment, to substitute Schœffler & Wendte for B. Domschke.

Mr. Sutherland—Mr. Harvey withdrawing his motion—made a motion, in substance the same as Mr. Harvey's resolution, to which Mr Smith also offered his amendment.

The amendment was lost, and Mr. Sutherland's motion prevailed.

The Senate then resolved itself into Committee of the Whole.

The Assembly has been in Committee of the Whole most of the morning, and transacted but little business of general interest.

There is a full Senate, and I anticipate an exciting discussion, this afternoon, upon Kansas.

A Border Ruffian Plying his Trade in Chicago.

The Chicago Tribune, of the 29th ult., says:

Yesterday morning as Mr. Charles L. Wilson, one of the editors of the Chicago Journal, was passing up Clark street, he was met in front of the Tribune buildings by U. S. District Attorney Hoyne, when the latter commenced abusing Mr. Wilson, threatening to pull his nose. Mr. W. advised this doughty "fight and crush" champion of Douglas' of the danger of attempting anything of the sort, whereupon Hoyne struck Mr. W. in the face and a fight ensued. The editor gave the District Attorney decidedly the worst of the bargain, so hastily struck. We regret, for the sake of our friends of the State Bank, that Mr. Wilson should have so unceremoniously landed the U. S. District Attorney into their banking room, through the large plate-glass window; but we think that if Charlie had thought a moment he would not have made a deposit of such depreciated currency. As soon as the circumstances rendered locomotion possible, the U. S. District Attorney found a change of location decidedly advantageous, and the sooner made the better. We are informed that the cause of Mr. Hoyne's attack upon Mr. Wilson was because the latter had printed Hoyne's rabid Abolition speeches of 1848, side by side with his rabid pro-slavery speeches in 1856.

Central American Question Again.

The N. Y. Herald has the following telegraph from Washington under the date of the 28th ult: A new and extraordinary chapter in diplomacy upon the Central American question, was opened last evening. Mr. Crampton addressed a hasty note to Mr. Marcy enclosing a letter from Lord Claredon to the British Minister, dated so long ago as last autumn, in which Lord C., loosely recites a conversation between himself and Mr. Buchanan, on the subject referring to the Central American difficulties to a third power for arbitration.

He requests Mr. Crampton to communicate his letter to the American Government. Mr. Crampton, s apology for not having done so before, is, that he overlooked the concluding paragraph containing that request. He now sends the original letter without stopping to make a copy, and requests that it may be copied and returned to him. The letter of Lord Clarendon can hardly be called a downright offer to submit the matter to arbitration.

The President has been induced to withhold the letter dismissing Mr. Crampton till the arrival of the steamer now due, in the expectation that he will be recalled by his own government; should that not be the case, the letter will be immediately sent.

The Watertown Democrat of the 28th inst says: The Chicago, St Paul, and Fond du Lac Railroad yesterday was completed from the city of Fond du Lac to the junction with the La Crosse Railroad, eight miles this side of Chester, and is now in operation.

DURHAM BULL.—Mr. H. H. Wilds, of Fort Atkinson, has a Durham Bull, two years old, which weighs 1,160 pounds.

WRITE OFTEN.

[CUT out the following and place it in the next letter you write to a dear friend. A more appropriate poem for such service was never written.]

Write to me very often,
Write to me very soon—
Letters to me are dearer
Than loveliest flowers in June;
They are affection's touches,
Lighting of friendship's lamp,
Flitting around the heart-strings,
Like fire-flies in the damp.

Write to me very often,
Write in the joyous morn,
Or at the close of evening,
When all the day is gone.
Then, while the stars are beaming
Bright on the azure sky,
When through the fading forest
Cold the wild winds sigh,
Draw up thy little table
Close to the fire, and write.
Write to me soon in the morning,
Or write to me late at night.

Write to me very often;
Letters are links that bind
Truthful hearts to each other,
Fettering mind to mind.
Giving to kindly spirits,
Lasting and true delight.
If ye would strengthen friendship,
Never forget to write!

FOREIGN NEWS BY THE AMERICA.

The America brings the following items of news:

The Peace Congress conferences were expected to open on the 18th, but the non-arrival of Count Burt and Ali Pacha will postpone meetings probably till Thursday 21st. Baron Brunow has arrived at Paris, and the Russian embassay is once more brilliant. Marquis Dacelea has declined appointment of Sardinian plenopotentionary in favor of Count Cavers.

Clarendon leaves London 16th for Paris. Ali Pascha has left Constantinople for Paris. Count Buol was hourly expected.

London Advertiser says that Austria and France both wished for the admission of Prussia, but Palmerston absolutely insisted on her exclusion.

The Vienna correspondent of the Times, confesses to know that France and Austria have come to an understanding of the 3rd point and that England will be out-voted in conferences, if she attempts to make a sine qua non of the disarming of Eastern coast of the Black Sea. France and Austria are likely to concur with England as to the new fortification of Aland Isle, and will insist on admission of consuls in all parts of the Black sea, but, neither France nor Austria consider the surrendering of Russian Forts on the Circassian coasts as demanded by the interest of Europe. Austria does not consider Decolaoff as a Black Sea port.

From the Crimea.—Allies have exploded last of Sebastopol docks. Fort Nicholas is mined. Five English regiments preparing to return home. French army received news of peace very badly.

Six boats attempted a surprise from north side but were discovered and repulsed by the French.

England.—A debate occurred in Commons, Friday night 15th. Mr. Roebuck rose and called attention of House to relations with the U. S., and moved for production of all correspondence with the Government of United States, relative to conduct of Crampton.

Roebuck commenced by impressing on the house the necessity for the question to be properly understood, and that it should be ascertained who was to blame for the unsatisfactory state of England's relations with America. He remarked that the laws of the United States, forbidding recruiting for foreign service in the early days of the Republic, had required the French minister of that period to be removed for such infringement of laws. Their jealousy on this head was only natural. He proceeded to show from documents or late trials in the United States, that Mr. Crampton knew that he was breaking the law; next he took means to evade, and thirdly was supported by the Government of Nova Scotia and Governor General of Canada and urged to it by the home Government.

Under these circumstances Roebuck contended that the Government of the U. S. was justified in requiring recall of Crampton, and that the apology, which the British Government had tendered, was a delusion upon the House and country. He therefore called first for a specific answer to this question. What instructions were given Crampton; next for an expression of opinion on part of the House that they were parties to this violation of the laws of the U. S.

Mr. Hadfield seconded the motion. Lord Palmerston replied, defending the government, and stating that the correspondence would be procured as soon as the last dispatch from the America Government had been received. Palmerston then launched into a fierce invective against Roebuck, whom he called the mouthpiece of calumnies uttered in the United States and holding brief from the enemy.

Palmerston then continued—no man could more strongly feel the calamity which would arise from a conflict between the British nation and U. S. These were the sentiments of the people of the country, but it was one thing to entertain a friendly feeling towards a kindred people, and another to maintain our feeling of self-respect. It was incumbent upon those who were charged with public interests to cultivate both, and the interests for peace were equally great on both sides of the Atlantic.

He was persuaded that his feeling was reciprocated on both sides of the Atlantic. Whatever might be said in popular speech in America, and notwithstanding such ebullition as the House.

These matters of differences, when they came to be laid before the Congress of the U. S., as they would before Parliament of Great Britian, would claim a dispassionate and reasonable consideration which was essential to a amicable settlement, and which he trusted would prevent intemperate individuals on the other side from attempting to plunge the two countries into calamities of war. Loud cheers.

The Chancellor of the Exchequer has notified capitalists to meet Palmerston and himself on Monday 18th, to hear proposed terms of new loan—supposed of twenty millions sterling.

London Times reviews Seward's speech—says England won't give up the smallest of her rights to mere American clamor. Our Liverpool correspondent gives from private sources, but does not guarantee the statement, that the Derby party and Gladstone party had each held a secret meeting on the course to be pursued respecting American difficulties. The Derby party decided to support Palmerston—to resent English honor from republican insult.—These were the actual words. The Gladstone party decided to take every measure to shun rupture with the U. States.

SOUTHERN WISCONSIN RAILROAD.—The Monroe Sentinel of the 27th ult. says: We spent a fraction of Monday afternoon in examining the work on this part of the road. The contractors (Messrs Graham) have commenced work at two points,—one about a mile from the village, in a ledge of rock, and the other just in the southern portion of the village. At this latter place we found about twenty men at work in a cut eleven feet deep, and making fine head way. We were informed by the foreman, Mr. Wolcott, that it is intended next week to lay a track, put on cars, and add a hundred men to those now at work, which will enable them to finish it very soon.

☞ The population of the village of Stevens Point is estimated at 1,200.

RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.

THE SISTER OF LAZARUS DESCRIBED BY PROF. INGRAHAM.—The Rev. Prof. J. H. Ingraham, the well known novelist, thus describes, in a recent work of religious fiction from his pen, the sister of Lazarus:

"Her eyes of that remarkable color so seldom seen among our people, and when it is of a richer and more cerulean tone than is found in the azure-eyed native of the North. They are as blue as the skies of Judea, and yet possess all the stormy, torrid splendor of the eyes of the Hebrew maids. Her hair, which is a soft, golden brown, is worn knotted in many masses about her superbly-molded neck. Her air is serene and confiding, and she has so little art that she lets you read all the secrets of her pure soul in the summer heaven of the sweet eyes I have spoken of. There is an indescribable pensiveness about her that is most touching, and at the same time pleasing."

BIBLE ITEMS.—The Gospel of Matthew is about to be issued in Koordish. An edition of four thousand copies of the Psalms in Bulgarian, revised by the Rev. Dr. Riggs, is already sold. The Bulgarians are a nation of 4,500,000 population, belonging to the Greek Church, and are, in their moral and religious characteristics, the Armenians of European Turkey. As many as one hundred and ten New Testaments, in the Mohammedan character and language have been sold to Musulmen in Constantinople in one month. A handsomely-bound copy, of the whole Bible in Turkish has been presented by the agents of the Bible Societies to the Grand Vizier, who accepted it with expressions of pleasure and promised a written acknowledgment.

SLAVERY AND THE CHURCH.—Anthony Burns, the fugitive slave, whose return to his master caused so much excitement, trouble, and governmental expense in Boston, has since been purchased by a subscription made up at the North, and set free. He was, it seems, a religious man, and a member of a church at a place called Union, Fauquir county, Virginia.—On becoming free, he went to Oberlin College, Ohio, to educate himself for the ministry, and wrote back to Virginia to his old pastor for a dismission from the church. In answer to this, he received a preamble and resolution, unanimously adopted by the congregation, excommunicating him from the communion and fellowship of the church, for having "absconded from the service of his master, and refused to return voluntarily, thereby disobeying both the laws of God and man."

GERMAN DEVOTION.—Those who grow weary under a sermon of over thirty minutes may profitably contemplate the long suffering of the Germans. A traveler writes of a Sabbath's experience in a village church near Hamburg: "The forenoon service was only five hours in length and the afternoon service four hours.—The long prayer was over one hour; the explanation of a reading in Psalms was about an hour, and the sermon over two hours. The hymns were sixten stanzas long, and eight lines to a stanza. The choir in the evening lit their lights while singing, and then extinguished them. The preacher took his tea at 10 o'clock at night, and being asked by his guests if he was not fatigued, said he was not in the least."

CHURCHES IN SAN FRANCISCO.—There are in San Francisco 30 churches, upon which there is an average attendance of 9,600, or one fifth of the population, exclusive of the Chinese.—The church property is valued at three fourths of a million. The San Francisco Herald remarks upon these facts that "the figurres will astonish some of the good people at the East who, during the May Anniversaries, elaborate upon the necessity of appropriating a part of the funds heretofore expended in the purchase of flannel shirts and red caps for the benighted inhabitants of Timbuctoo, for precipitation of an avalanche of missionaries upon the gloomy shores of California."

THE CROSS AND THE CHAIN.—The Syracuse Chronicle says that a gentleman of that city, who lately returned from the South, saw, on Sunday, a coachman at church chained to the wheel of the carriage, the chain being around the poor fellow's neck, and then fastened to the carriage, so as to prevent his escape. His master was inside partaking of the sacrament!

THEOLOGIANS OF HUMBLE ORIGIN.—The reformer, Zwingle, emerged from a shepherd's hut among the Alps. Melancthon was a workman in an armorer's shop. Martin Luther was the child of a poor miser. Dr. Adam Clarke was the child of Irish cotters. John Foster was a weaver. Andrew Fuller was a farm-servant. Dr. Morrison, translator of the Bible, into Chinese, was a last maker. Dr. Milne was a herd boy.

VERY PATRIARCHAL.—The Patriarch of Venice has issued a circular forbidding the publication of any work touching on religion or morality, directly or indirectly, without his permission.

WHAT MISSIONS DO FOR THEMSELVES.—The treasury of the London Missionary Society received, last year, more than $62,000—being a fifth part of the Society's income—from the mission churches and stations.

EPISCOPAL DISCUSSION.—A discussion is at present going on among Episcopalians in reference to the proper punctuation of these words in what is known by them as the "Apostle's Creed": "The Holy Catholic Church, the Communion of Saints." This printing with a comma after church, is now generally preferred, making the latter clause exegetical of the first, but many authorities put a semicolon after the word church, thus making the latter phrase a seperate article of belief, which is interpreted by some as including communion with the deceased as well as living saints.

CHURCH STOCK.—Churches are being built in Paris as stock speculations. The shares will be convertible, like those of the Rentes. Quotations will be governed mainly by the popularity of the preacher and quality of music.

COMMUNION SERVICE FOR AFRICA.—A lady of Hartford, Conn., has procured a handsome communion service of silver for the use of Bishop Paine, who is at the head of the Protestant Episcopal Mission in Western Africa.

RELIGIOUS NEWSPAPERS.—The New York Independent now circulates more copies per week in the six New England States and the State of New York, than all the religious newspapers circulated in England in 1853.

AGED CLERGYMEN.—There are now living in Massachusetts eighteen clergymen whose ages range from 75 to 92 years.

DRAMATIC READINGS.—Mrs. Webb, the colored Dramatic Reader, who gives an entertainment at Young's Hall on Monday evening next, has had the good fortune, wherever she has appeared, to draw audiences of the most unexceptionable character. Those attending her Readings in Boston, New York and Philadelphia, being of that class whose appearance at any entertainment would be a sufficient guarantee of its worth, and of the high estimation in which the performer was held. In Boston, particularly, where Mrs. Webb is a decided favorite, she attracted one of the largest and most fashionable audiences ever assembled in Tremont Temple—an audience numbering over 3,000 persons, filling the Temple to its utmost capacity. The N. Y. Tribune speaks of one of her Readings in that city in the following style:

Mrs. Webb—half African blood—read at the Tabernacle, last night a drama called the Christian Slave, founded on Uncle Tom's Cabin. It was composed of the chief conversations in that work. Mrs. Webb has dramatic talent. She has a good musical ear, and intonates thro' the range of an extensive and sympathetic voice according to the characters evolved in the text, and has evidently taken much pains to qualify herself for the task. She is not unmindful of the effects of the toilet, and is good looking beside. Her imitation of Topsy was particularly good. Her reading was repeatedly applauded and was a success.

MUSICAL SOCIETY OPERA.—The opera "Allessandro Stradella," which is to be performed at Young's Hall, on Tuesday evening next, March 4th, is one which had been produced but a few times, if at all in this country. It will be doubly interesting, from the fact that an entirely new scenery has been procured and that there will be, during the opera a Ballet and a Masquerade. The Musical Society spare no expense or exertions to entertain our citizens, and we hope to see them amply rewarded. Translations containing the substance of the opera, can be had at Niedecken's. Price 10 cents.

POLICE COURT.—The following cases were disposed of this forenoon:

Frederick Schweinger, drunkenness, fined $1 and in default was committed to Jail for five days; Geo. Dickenson, plead guilty to an assault and battery on Mary Nolk and was find $5: Theodore Bistof, convicted of stealing 37½ cents worth of wheat from the M. & M. R. R. Depot, and fined $10 and costs; Christian Waitzera Waitgenregel, fined $2 for fast driving over Spring St. Bridge.

The case of Henry Leiderbach vs. the city of Milwaukee for injury to horse on Cherry St. Bridge was tried and submitted to the Court who held the matter under advisement.

CIRCUIT COURT.—In the case of Michael Dwyer, yesterday, indicted for an assault with intent to kill his wife, the Jury failed to agree and were discharged.

The case of Matthias Lichtenstein, for sodomy, was concluded yesterday afternoon, resulting in his conviction.

RAIL ROAD MEETING.—The adjourned meeting, to discuss matters relative to the Milwaukee & Beloit R. R., this evening, will be held at the Court House, instead of at Democratic Hall—the latter having been previously engaged for other purposes. Let there be a full attendance.

CORN EXCHANGE.—On and after Monday morning, at 9 o'clock A. M. the members of the Corn Exchange will meet at the rooms over the Milwaukee & Mississippi Railroad Freight Depot.

BOARD OF TRADE.—The Board of Trade held a meeting at their rooms, this afternoon, to further keep up their organization.

MILL PROPERTY SOLD.—The Watertown Democrat says Rich, Lander & Co., last Saturday, sold the Steam Saw Mill in the sixth ward of this city, for $7,000, together with pine lumber amounting to about $20,000 more, to Webster & Peasley, of New Hampshire, gentlemen of capital, who propose to make this city their residence and carry on the lumber business.

MASONIC.—Dodge County Lodge of Free and accepted Masons was instituted in Beaver Dam on Saturday evening, Feb. 23d., and the following officers chosen:

"LAUGH AND GROW FAT."

HIAWATHA.

Have you read the misty poem
Of the mystic HIAWATHA—
Read about the wild Dakotas,
And the brave Humbugs wampams,
In the vales of Hifaluten,
In the vales of Wishy Washy,
In the vales of Skimmy Dishy?

No Sir-E-Sir, that I have not,
And I would not for a hundred
Dollars paid in silver, or in
Gold, by the inflated teller
Of the Bank called the Manhattan.

I looked in the book a moment,
And my spine is really aching
At the hard words Mr. Fongfel
Low puts in his learned verses.

Rumor says that Mr. RIPLEY,
Critic of the New-York Tribune,
Hired by Mr. HORACE GREELEY,
Labors with an awful lock-jaw,
Got in reading HIAWATHA.
Guess he got a-foul of this word:—
OBEJAYWAYASCALOLA!!

UNDOUBTED PATERNITY.—A member of the Suffolk bar, noted for his dark complexion, and supposed to be a lineal descendant of Scipio Africanus, a day or two since, entered the Court House, jingling in his hand, with the utmost satisfaction, ten twenty-dollar gold pieces. An acquaintance, observing it, remarked to him that the coin could not belong to him. "Why?" asked the legal gentleman. "Because they are YELLOW boys, and you are too dark to be the father." "Oh," replied the lawyer, laughing, "perhaps you don't know the color of MY WIFE."

AN exchange paper, announcing the death of a gentleman out west, says, "that deceased, tho' a Bank Director, it is generally believed died a Christian, and universally respected."

BONNETS.—The Miami Co Sentinel quotes Shakspere, in "Taming the Shrew," in justification of the ladies for wearing small bonnets, as follows:—

Petruchio—"Why, 'tis a cockle or a walnut shell, a knack, a toy, a trick, a baby's cap;
Away with it; come let me have a bigger."
Katharine—"I'll have no bigger; this doth fit the time."

A GENTLEMAN loafer, recently arrested in Cincinnati, being questioned by the officer as to his vocation, replied:—

"Sir, I am a doctor—I have cured a pain in the head of navigation, and drawn teeth from the mouth of the mouth of the Mississippi; I have anatomized the side of a mountain, blistered the foot of a hill, felt the pulse of an arm of the sea, plastered a cut on the hand of nature, and cured a felon on the finger of scorn."

GOD made both tears and laughter, and both for kind purposes; for, as laughter enables mirth and surprise to breathe freely, so tears enable sorrow to vent itself patiently. Tears hinder sorrow from becoming despair and madness; and laughter is one of the very privileges of reason, being confined to the human species.

"WHY did Joseph's brethren cast him into the pit?" asked a Sabbath School teacher of his class. "Because," replied one, slily, "they thought it a good opening for the young man." Commentators are requested not to avail themselves of this explanation, as a copy-right has been secured.

THE following question is being considered in an out-west debating society:—"Which has ruined most men—giving credit or getting trusted?" At the last accounts, the disputants were about "nip and tuck."

"GRANDMA," said a little urchin, "your specks are upside down. Do you wear them thus to see to sew!" "No, my dear," was the reply, "I wear them so to see."

PUNCH says that the reason why editors are so apt to have their manners spoiled, is because they receive such vast numbers of evil communications.

THE Louisville Democrat is responsible for the following "tough morsel:"

"A girl in Indiana, the other day, was suspected of having stolen a napkin. It was found in her possession, but she crammed it into her mouth and swallowed it. Hurrah for Hoosier!"

A MAYOR of a small village in France, having occasion to give a passport to a distinguished personage in his neighborhood, who was blind of one eye, was in great embarrassment on coming to the description of his person.—Fearful of offending the good man, he adopted the following expedient of avoiding the mention of his deformity. He wrote—"Black eyes, one of which is absent."

A CLERGYMAN in Boston, meeting with one of his congregation who recently came into possession of quite a handsome property by the death of his brother, inquired how he was getting along with the settlement of the estate.—"Oh," said he, "I am having a dreadful time; what, with getting out letters of administration, and attending probate court and settling claims, I sometimes almost wish he hadn't died."

A "FANCY" man bought a horse of a countryman, giving therefore $40 in cash, and his note for a like amount. After the note was drawn, signed and placed into the hands of the seller, the latter remarked—"I s'pose this note is good?" The buyer coolly replied, "Ax them fellers there—they've all got 'em."

A FRIEND has presented us with the autograph of the blacksmith that "riveted the public gaze."

A LADY once remarked "that carelessness was little better than a half-way house between accident and design."

A MILITIA captain at the West, by the name of Bang, has named his eldest son Slam. What a noisy fellow he'll be! ha! Slam Bang!

SHIPMENT OF WHEAT FROM WAUPUN.—During the four days ending the 23d ult., 5,115 bushels of wheat were shipped from Waupun by the M. & H. R. R.

BODIES FOUND.—On the night of the 28th., ult, two bodies were exhumed from the ruins of the Warehouse at Philadelphia which recently fell in. Their names were Jas. Muller, and Mark Donahue. There were three other bodies in the ruins.

JUDGE OF THE FIRST CIRCUIT.—The Madison Argus suggests A. W. Farr, a member of the Assembly from Elkhorn, Walworth Co., as a suitable successor to Judge Doolittle, who has resigned the Judgeship of the First Circuit. We don't believe the voters that Circuit will elevate Mr. Farr to that post this year.

GREAT FIRE.

TOLEDO, OHIO, Feb. 12, 1856.

The Duryee & Forsyth Manufacturing Company:

GENTLEMEN:—On the morning of the 29th ult., a fire broke out in our block, composed of nine buildings, of which ours is the centre. Our safe, which was one of Duryee & Forsyth's Manufacture, Rochester, N. Y., stood about in the middle of our store, and was exposed to the most severe fire we have ever witnessed, from 1 until 9½ o'clock in the morning. So intense was the heat that our stove, which was a large and heavy one, and which stood within about four feet of the safe, was almost entirely melted down. When we had seen that, we came to the conclusion that the contents of the safe were not preserved, but, on opening it, we were very agreeably surprised to find them all in a perfect state of preservation. Respectfully Yours, N. W. EDDY & CO.,

Mr. Horn is a painter by profession, and invites public attention to his style of painting Photographs. These pictures EXCEL THE FINEST PAINTING UPON IVORY, and while they equal the works of the Masters in their delicacy and richness of coloring, far surpass them in exactness of delineation and PERFECT FIDELITY TO FEATURE, expression and nature.

Friends, relatives and lovers may now rejoice in the possession of perfect likenesses, at a price that places them in the reach of all. Our painted Photographs are warranted to be all that is here represented, and we guarantee them to preserve their color without fading at least as long as paintings on ivory.

Particular attention also paid to Ambrotypes and Daguerreotypes, and ALL THE IMPROVEMENTS IN THE ART are applied by us as soon as introduced in the East. feb14

THE OPINION OF A LADY,

Who knows Mr. WEVER, and has bought Goods at

WEVER'S
DRY GOODS PALACE ! !
—AND—
CARPET ROOMS.
158 East Water Street.

Come to the Palace, oh, come there with me,
Where Fashion, 'mid splendor, still holds her levee.
And somebody tells you that Beauty is sold
To Youth or to Age, in exchange for gold;
And their Lady-like charms through life may prolong,
In robes like a Queen's, which sell for a song.
They've Shawls for the taste, and Shawls for the storm,
They've Cloaks which fall softly, so rich, and so warm:
They've Carpets of Wilton, of Velvet, and Brussels;
They've Laces, and 'Broideries, Ribbons, and Tassels;
They've sombre-hued Goods, for the weeping and sad
They've suits like the sunshine, for merry and glad;
They've fabrics for millions and hold their levee
For those who pay tribute, or come but to see.
If Palace of Dry Goods, so wondrous grand,
Can be aught but a fable, of old Fairyland;
But those who know WEVER, can't doubt for a minute
This glorious Palace, and all that is in it

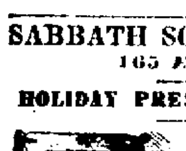

Yours, C. H. G.

Now ! blush, indeed I do. What modest, married man would not ! Yet I console myself with the idea that Beauty always pays tribute to Worth and Merit. Thanking sincerely yet humbly my fair contributor, I trust that by honesty, uprightness and my gentlemanly bearing, I may ever commend her respect.

THE OLD EAGLE GOING IT WITH A RUSH

The Eagle
STEAM FOUNDRY
OF
TURTON & SERCOMB,
296, 298, 300, 302 and 304, West Water Street

IS still in full blast, working day and night to supply the daily increasing wants of the Badger and other States.

In order the better to do this the proprietors have erected a large brick Foundry in addition to their former premises. They have added to their stock of Tools a large Planeing Machine or Shaping Machine, three Lathes, and a machine for making bolts, and are now putting in a Steam Engine of — horse power to drive the whole, thereby adding to their former facilities for the successful carrying on of the Foundry, Machine, Engine, and Blacksmithing business. They never were in a better position for doing business, and defy competion in any department.

In regard to the character of the work got up by this, The Oldest Establishment in the State, the Proprietors refer to that in successful operation thro' the country as their best recommendation, as it can speak for itself. All they can say is, that they are both PRACTICAL MECHANICS, and know how work should be done as well as the next man. They continue to manufacture Flour and Saw Mill Gearing and Steam Engines, on the most approved principle.

They have always on hand a large stock of BRASS WORK, such as Guage and Cylinder Cocks, Oil Caps & Cocks, and Steam Whistles. Also Turton's Files, which they will sell at the lowest cash prices.

They are also Agents for Eastman's Patent Steam Guages, which are well worth the attention of all who use Steam Engines.

In conclusion, they invite a continued share of the patronage of their old friends, and solicit a call from all those in want of Saw or Flouring Mill Work, assuring them that no exertions will be spared to render the Old Eagle worthy of the reputation it has already gained.

Their motto is, "Excelsior."

As his stock is all new, of the latest and most fashionable styles, purchased direct from manufacturers and importers, and will be sold at a very small advance, he flatters himself that both Prices and Goods will give general satisfaction.

AYER'S PILLS.

FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A FAMILY PHYSIC.

THERE has long existed a public demand for an effective purgative pill which could be relied on as sure and perfectly safe in its operation. This has been prepared to meet that demand, and an extensive trial of its virtues has conclusively shown with what success it accomplishes the purpose designed. It is easy to make a physical pill, but not easy to make the best of all pills—one which should have none of the objections, but all the advantages, of every other. This has been attempted here, and with what success we would respectfully submit to the public decision. It has been unfortunate for the patient hitherto that almost every purgative medicine is acrimonious and irritating to the bowels. This is not. Many of them produce so much griping pain and revulsion in the system as to more than counterbalance the good to be derived from them. These pills produce no irritation or pain, unless it arise from a previously existing obstruction or derangement in the bowels. Being purely vegetable, no harm can arise from their use in any quantity; but it is better that any medicine should be taken judiciously. Minute directions for their use in the several diseases to which they are applicable are given on the box. Among the complaints which have been speedily cured by them, we may mention Liver Complaint, in its various forms of Jaundice, Indigestion, Languor and Loss of Appetite, Listlessness, Irritability, Bilious Headache, Bilious Fever, Fever and Ague, Pain in the Side and Loins; for, in truth, all these are but the consequence of diseased action in the liver. As an aperient they afford prompt and sure relief in Costiveness, Piles, Colic, Dysentery, Humors, Scrofula and Scurvy, Colds with soreness of the body, Ulcers and impurity of the blood; in short, any and every case where a purgative is required.

They have also produced some singularly successful cures in Rheumatism, Gout, Dropsy, Gravel, Erysipelas, Palpitation of the Heart, Pains in the Back, Stomach, and Side. They should be freely taken in the spring of the year, to purify the blood and prepare the system for the change of seasons. An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, and restores the appetite and vigor. They purify the blood, and, by their stimulant action on the circulatory system, renovate the strength of the body, and store the wasted or diseased energies of the whole organism. Hence an occasional dose is advantageous, even though no serious derangement exists; but unnecessary dosing should never be carried too far, as every purgative medicine reduces the strength, when taken to excess. The thousand cases in which a physic is required cannot be enumerated here, but they suggest themselves to the reason of every body; and it is confidently believed this pill will answer a better purpose than any thing which has hitherto been available to mankind. When their virtues are once known, the public will no longer doubt what remedy to employ when in need of a cathartic medicine. Being sugar-wrapped they are pleasant to take, and being purely vegetable, no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

AYER'S
CHERRY PECTORAL,
For the rapid Cure of
COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING-COUGH, CROUP, ASTHMA, AND CONSUMPTION.

THIS remedy has won for itself such notoriety from its cures of every variety of pulmonary disease, that it is entirely unnecessary to recount the evidences of its virtues in any community where it has been employed. So wide is the field of its usefulness, and so numerous the cases of its cures that almost every section of the country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs which are incident to our climate. And not only in formidable attacks upon the lungs, but for the milder varieties of COLDS, COUGHS, HOARSENESS, &c.; and for CHILDREN it is the pleasantest and safest medicine that can be obtained.

As it has long been in constant use throughout this section, we need not do more than assure the people its quality is kept up to the best that it ever has been, and that the genuine article is sold by—W. L. Hopkins & Bro., H. Bosworth & Sons, Agents Druggists in Milwaukee, and by dealers generally thro' out the country.

BOWLING FOR THE MILLION!
The Nucleus of Pleasure Reduced to Five Pence
DURING THE DAY!
THE "BADGER STATE" SALOON TRIUMPHANT!

Roll away, boll away, roll away all,
Set up the pins, boys, the price is but small;
Off with the coat, now, and roll up the sleeve,
And at it, my jolly lads—heave away, heave.

With the arm's muscles bare, for one hour, fling
Dull care to the air, and at five cents a string:
Roll away, boll away, hearty and strong,
'Twill develope the man, and his life thus prolong

Who would sit moping all day in his chair,
When pleasure and profit, so rich and so rare,
Can be had, and that, too, at such a cheap rate,
At the Bowling Saloon of the old "Badger State.

Come, then, "Young America," foreigners, too,
Here's rolling and bolling—not just for the few,
But for old and for young, for little and great—
Come join in the fun at the old "Badger State."

☞ Entrance both on Main and East Water Streets.

Look for the Red Light.
